

FARMVILLE HERALD.

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY.

J. L. HART.....Owner and Publisher.

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION:

One copy, one year.....$1.00
" " six months.....50
" " three months.....25

(Entered at the Postoffice at Farmville as second class matter.)

All communications and money should be addressed to THE HERALD, Farmville, Va.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1868.

Contributions to the Democratic Campaign Fund.

The Herald acknowledges the following amounts so far contributed for the National Democratic fund, and expresses the hope that the list of contributors will grow rapidly. "Shall the people rule?" is the battle cry sounded by the peerless leader. Let the people give back the thundering "yes."

Previously reported.....$200

CONFIDENCE IN BRYAN.

Some years ago a Japanese boy in his far away Japanese home read of W. L. Bryan, and as he read he was impressed with the fatherhood of the man and the kindness of his nature. So confident was he of these things that he wrote to him and said: "I am coming to you and to be a member of your household." Mr. Bryan may have thought here is a "dreamer" as so many people are given to say of the foremost American citizen. And yet he was no more dreamer than is the great and good man to whom he wrote, for it wasn't many months before when one day Mr. Bryan answered his own door bell he found a Japanese boy standing on the threshold of his home, who simply said: "I have come." He was warmly welcomed, became a member of the family circle and for five years received the tender love and careful training which was given to the children, and then went back to his home as much enriched in character by his contact with American goodness and American greatness as was his nation when Perry brought it in touch with American civilization. And can we, his fellow countrymen, born under the same flag, reared under the same stars, trained in the same schools, speaking the same mother-tongue not trust a man whose matchless manhood and bigness of heart have encircled the globe?

"Wisdom cometh with the night," says Marse Henry Watterson, and that may explain why he is seeking out the shady side in politics. Better be careful, brother, for wisdom so found in the night will not be followed by "joy in the morning."

Mr. Bryan has told us just what he is worth and how he made the money. Come out in the light "Uncle Joe" and be just as candid and confidential with the public.

W. L. Royall, Richmond's freak, rented the Capitol square and invited the world to gather about the Washington monument and listen as a kinsman of John Marshall demonstrated that present-day Americans haven't sense enough to name a fit candidate for the presidency. And he had unblushing brass to challenge the peerless Bryan to meet him. Where is Martin Lipcombe? We repeat that it is comforting to know that some erazy folks are harmless, and we have no law to restrain a man from making a fool of himself.

Harrison says last year's panic didn't scratch us without a scratch. Some other people were scratched slightly, however.—Press, Newport News.

But President Hill suffered a scratch of a finger and the news of it unsettled the stock market. The fact is the "old scratch" is abroad in the land.

The imposing Catholic procession which took place in London on last Sunday was not attended with bloodshed as it was feared it would. Protestant England was stirred to its profoundest depths, however, and it is said that nothing saved the outbreak but the order issued by the Government forbidding the carrying of the "Host" in the procession. Let us hope that the age in which we live will not be spotted and stained by a religious war, or rather, a war waged in the name of religion. A "saint run mad" is desperate as well as despicable.

Hughes won out in New York. A cartoon in the Washington Herald strikingly says why. Mr. Roosevelt simply held Woodruff's nose and made him swallow the pill.

Now that Mr. Bryan has been so warmly welcomed in Maryland we wonder if he can from the heart sing "Maryland, my Maryland!"

And now some one says that fish talk. If so they may be able to tell us what the "wild waves are saying."

The Episcopalians of his own State have been going for "Uncle Joe." The Methodists had a whale of him recently, and our hope is that we may have for the time being at least a union of Church and State and put an end to this one-man power.

Maine went Republican and Arkansas Democratic. No stocks as yet nor will we be when Vermont again goes Republican and Virginia Democratic.

Teddy, Jr., is now 21 and will become a member of the most oppressive and offensive of all trusts, the steel trust. Will the "big stick" then harm a hair of his head? Nay, verily.

Venerable Henry G. Davis has given up the fight but his distinguished running mate is in the thick of it and sees victory in the air.

We rather like the song of that brother Democrat that runs this way: "Hurrah for Bryan-Kern and bread, Versus hard times, Taft and Ted."

It was the late Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge who said, "Every newspaper should be a gentleman," and we are mighty glad he said it. The Louisville Courier Journal suggested that it be framed and hung in the sanctum of all newspapers.

If we neglect to frame it we will not let it slip out of memory's grasp.

Don't be afraid to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to your children. It contains no opium or other harmful drugs. It always cures. For sale by Winston Drug Co.

Straw Hats can be bought at factory prices. Just a few left.

We are very much indebted to the able and courteous editor of the Harrisburg Times for the most cheering news yet given to the Democrats during the present canvas, and was to the effect that they, the Democrats, had "money to burn." And this being so, "dollars to doughnuts" that William Jennings Bryan is the next President of the United States.

The Baltimore Sun, says the Richmond News Leader has the right to do as its own sweet will dictates, but in our opinion no one has the right to do which is damaging if not destructive of the best interests and highest good of friends and neighbors.

Hurry up, Democrats of Baltimore, and establish a morning daily that will not insult your intelligence nor injure your business.

J. J. Hill, the railroad magnate, who has been one of the big beneficiaries under Republican administration is seen too, and tells the G. O. P. managers that they have to hustle or all is lost. He is an observant man and knows just what he is talking about. With all their hustle, however, we believe we have "got em."

Previously reported.....$200

CONFIDENCE IN BRYAN.

We cannot assume that the editors of the Culpeper Exponent, the Clarke Courier or the Farmville Herald are any anxious to be popular than after studying the political situation thoroughly, because satisfied that the election of Mr. Taft would be better for the country and for his own people than the election of Mr. Bryan. Would he not feel that his duty required him to say what he thought? Would he think himself a traitor to the Democratic party or his readers if he printed in his editorial columns the result of his own study and consideration?

Our answer is, that conditions in the Southern States are such that in our opinion no reason, Chamberlain's Salve should be kept in every household on account of its great value in treatment of burns. It relieves the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a severe one, heals the sore without leaving a scar. This salve is also unequalled for chapped hands, sore nipples and diseases of the skin. Price 25 cents. For sale by The Winston Drug Co.

Best remedy for a Burn.

If for no other reason, Chamberlain's Salve should be kept in every household on account of its great value in treatment of burns. It relieves the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a severe one, heals the sore without leaving a scar. This salve is also unequalled for chapped hands, sore nipples and diseases of the skin. Price 25 cents. For sale by The Winston Drug Co.

ATTENTION LAWYERS.

The American Bar Association in session at Seattle last week, adopted the new code of ethics which a committee had prepared. One of the chief features is that lawyers shall not counsel clients or allow themselves to transgress the moral law in fighting their legal battles. Contingent fees, when sanctioned by law, shall be under the supervision of the court.

It is the duty of all lawyers to respect the courts and to try to keep politics out of the selection of judges. Counsel for persons accused of crime may act in that capacity without regard to their personal conviction as to the guilt of the accused. Attempts to curry favor with juries by flattery or flattery are discredited. Lawyers more not represent interests before legislatures unless they do so openly. Soliciting business by circulators, etc., is unprofessional. No case should be undertaken that conflicts with the final obligation of the lawyer to uphold the law of the land.

Harrison says last year's panic didn't scratch us without a scratch. Some other people were scratched slightly, however.—Press, Newport News.

But President Hill suffered a scratch of a finger and the news of it unsettled the stock market. The fact is the "old scratch" is abroad in the land.

The imposing Catholic procession which took place in London on last Sunday was not attended with bloodshed as it was feared it would. Protestant England was stirred to its profoundest depths, however, and it is said that nothing saved the outbreak but the order issued by the Government forbidding the carrying of the "Host" in the procession. Let us hope that the age in which we live will not be spotted and stained by a religious war, or rather, a war waged in the name of religion. A "saint run mad" is desperate as well as despicable.

Mr. Bryan has told us just what he is worth and how he made the money. Come out in the light "Uncle Joe" and be just as candid and confidential with the public.

W. L. Royall, Richmond's freak, rented the Capitol square and invited the world to gather about the Washington monument and listen as a kinsman of John Marshall demonstrated that present-day Americans haven't sense enough to name a fit candidate for the presidency. And he had unblushing brass to challenge the peerless Bryan to meet him. Where is Martin Lipcombe? We repeat that it is comforting to know that some erazy folks are harmless, and we have no law to restrain a man from making a fool of himself.

Harrison says last year's panic didn't scratch us without a scratch. Some other people were scratched slightly, however.—Press, Newport News.

But President Hill suffered a scratch of a finger and the news of it unsettled the stock market. The fact is the "old scratch" is abroad in the land.

The imposing Catholic procession which took place in London on last Sunday was not attended with bloodshed as it was feared it would. Protestant England was stirred to its profoundest depths, however, and it is said that nothing saved the outbreak but the order issued by the Government forbidding the carrying of the "Host" in the procession. Let us hope that the age in which we live will not be spotted and stained by a religious war, or rather, a war waged in the name of religion. A "saint run mad" is desperate as well as despicable.

Hughes won out in New York. A cartoon in the Washington Herald strikingly says why. Mr. Roosevelt simply held Woodruff's nose and made him swallow the pill.

Now that Mr. Bryan has been so warmly welcomed in Maryland we wonder if he can from the heart sing "Maryland, my Maryland!"

And now some one says that fish talk. If so they may be able to tell us what the "wild waves are saying."

The Episcopalians of his own State have been going for "Uncle Joe." The Methodists had a whale of him recently, and our hope is that we may have for the time being at least a union of Church and State and put an end to this one-man power.

Maine went Republican and Arkansas Democratic. No stocks as yet nor will we be when Vermont again goes Republican and Virginia Democratic.

Teddy, Jr., is now 21 and will become a member of the most oppressive and offensive of all trusts, the steel trust. Will the "big stick" then harm a hair of his head? Nay, verily.

Venerable Henry G. Davis has given up the fight but his distinguished running mate is in the thick of it and sees victory in the air.

We rather like the song of that brother Democrat that runs this way: "Hurrah for Bryan-Kern and bread, Versus hard times, Taft and Ted."

It was the late Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge who said, "Every newspaper should be a gentleman," and we are mighty glad he said it. The Louisville Courier Journal suggested that it be framed and hung in the sanctum of all newspapers.

If we neglect to frame it we will not let it slip out of memory's grasp.

Don't be afraid to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to your children. It contains no opium or other harmful drugs. It always cures. For sale by Winston Drug Co.

Straw Hats can be bought at factory prices. Just a few left.

FLEMING & CLARK.

A WOMAN'S BACK.

The Aches and Pains Will Disappear if the Advice of this Farmville Citizen is followed.

A woman's back has many aches and pains.

Most times 'tis the kidney's fault. Backache is really kidney ache; That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.

Many Farmville women know this. Read what one has to say about it.

Mrs. T. G. Adams, Riverton, Third Street, Farmville, Va., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and am well pleased with the results derived. When I began their use I was suffering from weak kidneys and was greatly troubled with a dull aching across the small of my back. Often felt dull and languid and had but little energy or ambition. There were so many unmistakable signs that my kidneys were in an disorderly condition that I decided to try a reliable kidney remedy. I was so much impressed by what I had heard about Doan's Kidney Pills that I produced a box at R. L. Freear's drug store, and had them used but a short while before I began to feel a great deal better. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me of the pain in my back and improved my health to such an extent that I take pleasure in recommending them to other sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Mulhall Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Cement floors are excellent to save fertility, but they must be kept covered with plenty of bedding, if the stock is to remain healthy.

Best remedy for a Burn.

If for no other reason, Chamberlain's Salve should be kept in every household on account of its great value in treatment of burns. It relieves the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a severe one, heals the sore without leaving a scar. This salve is also unequalled for chapped hands, sore nipples and diseases of the skin. Price 25 cents. For sale by The Winston Drug Co.

ATTENTION LAWYERS.

The American Bar Association in session at Seattle last week, adopted the new code of ethics which a committee had prepared. One of the chief features is that lawyers shall not counsel clients or allow themselves to transgress the moral law in fighting their legal battles. Contingent fees, when sanctioned by law, shall be under the supervision of the court.

It is the duty of all lawyers to respect the courts and to try to keep politics out of the selection of judges. Counsel for persons accused of crime may act in that capacity without regard to their personal conviction as to the guilt of the accused. Attempts to curry favor with juries by flattery or flattery are discredited. Lawyers more not represent interests before legislatures unless they do so openly. Soliciting business by circulators, etc., is unprofessional. No case should be undertaken that conflicts with the final obligation of the lawyer to uphold the law of the land.

ATTENTION LAWYERS.

The American Bar Association in session at Seattle last week, adopted the new code of ethics which a committee had prepared. One of the chief features is that lawyers shall not counsel clients or allow themselves to transgress the moral law in fighting their legal battles. Contingent fees, when sanctioned by law, shall be under the supervision of the court.

It is the duty of all lawyers to respect the courts and to try to keep politics out of the selection of judges. Counsel for persons accused of crime may act in that capacity without regard to their personal conviction as to the guilt of the accused. Attempts to curry favor with juries by flattery or flattery are discredited. Lawyers more not represent interests before legislatures unless they do so openly. Soliciting business by circulators, etc., is unprofessional. No case should be undertaken that conflicts with the final obligation of the lawyer to uphold the law of the land.

ATTENTION LAWYERS.

The American Bar Association in session at Seattle last week, adopted the new code of ethics which a committee had prepared. One of the chief features is that lawyers shall not counsel clients or allow themselves to transgress the moral law in fighting their legal battles. Contingent fees, when sanctioned by law, shall be under the supervision of the court.

It is the duty of all lawyers to respect the courts and to try to keep politics out of the selection of judges. Counsel for persons accused of crime may act in that capacity without regard to their personal conviction as to the guilt of the accused. Attempts to curry favor with juries by flattery or flattery are discredited. Lawyers more not represent interests before legislatures unless they do so openly. Soliciting business by circulators, etc., is unprofessional. No case should be undertaken that conflicts with the final obligation of the lawyer to uphold the law of the land.

ATTENTION LAWYERS.

The American Bar Association in session at Seattle last week, adopted the new code of ethics which a committee had prepared. One of the chief features is that lawyers shall not counsel clients or allow themselves to transgress the moral law in fighting their legal battles. Contingent fees, when sanctioned by law, shall be under the supervision of the court.

It is the duty of all lawyers to respect the courts and to try to keep politics out of the selection of judges. Counsel for persons accused of crime may act in that capacity without regard to their personal conviction as to the guilt of the accused. Attempts to curry favor with juries by flattery or flattery are discredited. Lawyers more not represent interests before legislatures unless they do so openly. Soliciting business by circulators, etc., is unprofessional. No case should be undertaken that conflicts with the final obligation of the lawyer to uphold the law of the land.

ATTENTION LAWYERS.

The American Bar Association in session at Seattle last week, adopted the new code of ethics which a committee had prepared. One of the chief features is that lawyers shall not counsel clients or allow themselves to transgress the moral law in fighting their legal battles. Contingent fees, when sanctioned by law, shall be under the supervision of the court.

It is the duty of all lawyers to respect the courts and to try to keep politics out of the selection of judges. Counsel for persons accused of crime may act in that capacity without regard to their personal conviction as to the guilt of the accused. Attempts to curry favor with juries by flattery or flattery are discredited. Lawyers more not represent interests before legislatures unless they do so openly. Soliciting business by circulators, etc., is unprofessional. No case should be undertaken that conflicts with the final obligation of the lawyer to uphold the law of the land.

ATTENTION LAWYERS.

The American Bar Association in session at Seattle last week, adopted the new code of ethics which a committee had prepared. One of the chief features is that lawyers shall not counsel clients or allow themselves to transgress the moral law in fighting their legal battles. Contingent fees, when sanctioned by law, shall be under the supervision of the court.

It is the duty of all lawyers to respect the courts and to try to keep politics out of the selection of judges. Counsel for persons accused of crime may act in that capacity without regard to their personal conviction as to the guilt of the accused. Attempts to curry favor with juries by flattery or flattery are discredited. Lawyers more not represent interests before legislatures unless they do so openly. Soliciting business by circulators, etc., is unprofessional. No case should be undertaken that conflicts with the final obligation of the lawyer to uphold the law of the land.

ATTENTION LAWYERS.

The American Bar Association in session at Seattle last week, adopted the new code of ethics which a committee had prepared. One of the chief features is that lawyers shall not counsel clients or allow themselves to transgress the moral law in fighting their legal battles. Contingent fees, when sanctioned by law, shall be under the supervision of the court.

It is the duty of all lawyers to respect the courts and to try to keep politics out of the selection of judges. Counsel for persons accused of crime may act in that capacity without regard to their personal conviction as to the guilt of the accused. Attempts to curry favor with juries by flattery or flattery are discredited. Lawyers more